MAUI, Oct. 25 .- Prince Kuhio's tour Friday the 24th. through Hana district has been marked by ovation after ovation. The people turned out en masse, Republicans, Home Rulers and Democrats, the large and small, men, women and children.

The start was made on Saturday morning, the 18th, from Hamakuapoko. speakers of his party addressed the recple of Huelo at noon and those of Eagne in the recoiler. Keanae in the evening. Fine luaus and large crowds the rule at both meetings.

After a night's rest at Keanae, on Sunday the party journeyed on to Nahiku where at noon another mass meet-ing and feast took place. Here the Delegate R. W. Wilcox arrived in La-Prince and the carriage in which he missiles used were flowers. The vil-lagers not only adorned him with a Kalaupapa settlement. multitude of leis, but pelted him with flowers, bouquets and wreaths until the carriage was well-nigh filled.

One hundred and fifty of the Nahiku party for ten or twelve miles into Hana thing is now working finely where, Sunday night, a very large as-semblage of people took place at the court house. Not only was the building use crowded and overflowed into the Mrs. J.

There were crowds of Hawaiians all pager to see and listen to the "alii" can-Honomaele and Hamoa ressed a large meeting at the Catholic shurch at Hamoa. This locality though ut to a man, in fact to a woman or child, for the purpose of giving careful unored that his speech here caused a quarrel among the Home Rulers.

Monday evening another ovation was given the Prince at Kipahulu, the na-tive church being crowded to the doors. About 150 Hana people escorted the speakers to Kipahulu, a matter of ten niles. These large escorts to the Prince are proofs of his popularity.

On the way from Kipahulu to Kaupo, Kalauckalani, the great Home Rule eader, was encountered looking rather lownhearted so the Republicans nagined. His reception at Kaupo had een rather a cool one—only fifteen peo-
